Chapter 4 · Stage 2 — Offer

Seven fields. The output is one sentence you can say without flinching.

1. WHO

I sell to ___ within minutes of ___.

2. THE UNIT

I deliver: _____

Defined precisely as:

A scheduled appointment with _____ [decision-maker], located in _____ [service area], who has confirmed the time by _____ [text / phone / email].

Write this definition into the SOW. It is the argument you're not having in month three.

3. THE OUTCOME, IN THEIR UNITS

___ [appointments] in the first ___ days.

Not "more customers." A number and a timeframe, in the units they already think in.

4. WHAT ONE UNIT IS WORTH TO THEM

- Average job value: $__
- Their close rate on estimates: _____ %
- Value of one appointment: $__

5. TIME TO FIRST RESULT

- A2P registration submitted: day _____ (should be day 1)
- Registration approved: day _____ (carrier time — 4 to 15 days)
- Build complete: day _____
- First appointment expected by: day _____

6. WHAT I DO NOT DO

- _____
- _____
- _____

Say these out loud on the call. Unbounded scope gets eaten one favor at a time.

7. THE ONE SENTENCE

Say it out loud ten times. If you stumble on the same phrase twice, that phrase is wrong.

LANGUAGE CHECK BEFORE YOU SEND ANYTHING

- [] No income claim. Describe the service, never predict their earnings.
- [] No "guarantee," "will make," "ROI," or "promise."
- [] The unit is defined precisely enough to be measured.
