

Client Onboarding Checklist — Day 0 to 14

From The OneVision Playbook by Isaiah Wright · onevision asset vault Fill this in. Do not retype it out of the book.

Chapter 13 · Stage 5 → 6

Everything here is bent toward one thing: the client's first booked appointment. That's the activation point, and how fast you reach it predicts whether they stay.

DAY 0 — SIGNATURE DAY

- [] Setup fee collected
- [] A2P registration submitted the same day (asset 13)
- [] Onboarding call booked before the signature call ends
- [] Access request sent

DAY 1 — ONBOARDING CALL

- [] Collect access: ad accounts, domain, existing CRM, phone
- [] Get real calendar availability in writing — actual windows, including some evenings. "Whenever" books nothing
- [] Resell the outcome in his words
- [] Walk through exactly what happens over 14 days — including the registration wait and why it exists
- [] Tell him: "If you ever want to stop, I just ask for fifteen minutes first"
- [] Book the day-14 review now

DAYS 2-4 — BUILDING

- [] Build per asset 14
- [] Send one short progress note even though nothing is live

Silence in week one is what kills month two. From his side, "building" and "nothing happening" look identical.

DAY 5 — TEST

- [] Full path tested as a fake lead, from your own phone on cellular
- [] Show the client the test. Seeing it work before it's live buys you the rest of the wait

DAY 7+ — LIVE

- ☐ Registration approved
- ☐ Campaigns on
- ☐ Tell him the hour it went live

FIRST APPOINTMENT — WHENEVER IT LANDS

- ☐ Call him the day it happens. Not email. Not the weekly report. Call
- ☐ "You've got a real one Thursday at two. Here's what they asked about."
- ☐ Log days from signature → first booked appointment: _____

DAY 14 — FIRST REVIEW

- ☐ What came in, what booked, what showed
- ☐ One thing you're changing
- ☐ One thing you need from him
- ☐ Next check-in scheduled

THE TWO NOBODY DOES

- ☐ Progress note on day 3 with nothing live
- ☐ Phone call the day the first appointment books
