

Outreach Pipeline Spec

From The OneVision Playbook by Isaiah Wright · onevision asset vault Fill this in. Do not retype it out of the book.

Chapter 7 · Stage 3 — Volume

Six stages. Not twelve. A pipeline you maintain beats a pipeline you abandon.

THE STAGES

STAGE	MEANS	MOVES FORWARD WHEN
Cold	On the list, never contacted	First touch sent
Touched	Contacted, no response	Any reply, or sequence exhausted
Replied	Responded, including "not interested"	A real back-and-forth
Conversation	Engaged past the first exchange	Call scheduled
Call Booked	Time on the calendar	Call happens
Proposal Out	They've heard the price	Signature or a no

FIELDS PER RECORD

Name · Owner name · Phone · Email · One specific detail · Source · Touch count · Last touch date · Next touch date

That "one specific detail" field is what makes your first line not sound like a blast. It's the most important column.

THE FOLLOW-UP SEQUENCE

Decide it once so it isn't a decision you make while tired. Five to seven touches over about two weeks, front-loaded, varying channel.

TOUCH	DAY	CHANNEL
1	0	[]
2	1-2	[]
3	4	[]
4	7	[]
5	11	[]
6	14	[] — final

Then move to long-term nurture. Don't delete. A landscaper who ignored you in February may be desperate in April.

THE OUTREACH DAY

Before the block (once a week, separate session) - [] Add 100+ businesses to Cold - [] Each row: name, owner, phone, email, one specific detail

The block (same time daily) - [] Work Touched first — every follow-up due today - [] Work Cold — new contacts until the number is hit - [] Move anyone who replied into Replied - [] Log: attempts ___ replies ___ convos ___ - [] Close it. Don't reopen at 11pm.

Weekly (4 minutes, Sunday) - [] Total the three columns - [] Count what's sitting in each stage - [] Name the single biggest drop-off — that's next week's problem

READING THE DROP-OFFS

WHERE IT PILES UP	WHAT IT MEANS
Cold → Touched	You're not hitting your number
Touched → Replied	Message or targeting
Replied → Conversation	Opener is interesting, offer isn't landing
Conversation → Call Booked	You're not asking for the call directly
Call Booked → Proposal	Show rate, or the call structure
Proposal → Signed	Price, or the objection you're not handling
